Foreword

The editor and staff are proud to present to the students and faculty of Lakeview High School the "1945 Scroll." There is a noticeable expansion both in our school's curriculum and enrollment. Therefore we are taking the initial step in the publication of an annual which we hope will become a tradition of our school. We feel that this step is in keeping with our community's progressive spirit.

We have tried to present here a true picture of our high school life. May this book, in years to come, serve as a reminder of pleasant days well-spent.

Ruth Culliton, Editor

WE'VE HAD A PAST

As one of the largest classes to graduate from Lakeview, we have a lot to remember. In the ninth grade some of us were grown up, while many of us still clung to our childhood. As Freshmen we weren't allowed to give any dances, but we started our treasury "a-rollin'" by collecting dues. The Christmas season brought out the artistic touch of some of our class members, for this was the year the P.-T.A. voted our room the best-dressed in the school. The cold crispness of winter brought occasion for many gay evenings, including our first ice skating party.

High-pitched enthusiasm was put into our Sophomore year. Up until now the part we played in school activities had only been in attending student affairs, but this year we gave a dance. Another major topic of discussion was the festive May Party, sponsored by the Student Council. From twelve contestants, chosen from Junior and Senior high school home rooms, our own candidate, Doris Sarver, was elected Queen of the May. At the end of our Sophomore year we unanimously chose our class rings, and eagerly anticipated receiving them when we would return in the fall.

Our Junior year found us ready to take anything coming our way and every member willing to do his part to make this year a real success. Many from our class participated in the successful Mid-Winter Follies, sponsored by the P.-T.A.; the returns were used to purchase auditorium, black-out curtains. Then came the Spring Concert, another musical venture in the entertainment field. And still in the mood of grease paint and lights, "High Pressure Homer," struck a high note of entertainment, but its production caused more confusion and headaches than our directors had imagined possible. Always important in the Junior year is the formality of the J-Hop. Now, too, we could tell of the Junior-Senior Reception, but these memories might better be buried.

And now our last year, the year that some are anxious to leave while others long to be "Frosh" again. Early fall activities were high-lighted by the presentation of "Kay Beats The Band," the financial success of which helped fill the ready Senior coffers for our long-awaited Spring cruise. The closely-knit glee clubs continued to take an important part in musical activities in holding down many feature spots in the gala "1945 Follies" and also by the presentation of a melodious Spring Concert, rounding out our musical season. Spring activities included an always outstanding event in the life of the Senior class, the annual Prom, which was given in conjunction with Lakeshore's Seniors. Less elaborate, but none the less important were the informal parties given for our boys going into the service.

Then the time of sulphur and molasses came and Senior Skip Day was called—picnic lunches were packed and the class headed for the wide open spaces. Upon arrival enjoyment was sought in hiking, playing baseball, and especially eating. In the evening after a day full of fun and excitement we returned exhausted, but to our amazement with no attendant broken bones, to "good old St. Clair Shores."

Now it is our turn to wear the caps and gowns of honor . . . our turn to claim what we have worked four years to achieve . . . our day to take the applause and well-wishing of friends for jobs well done.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior class is an unusual group of young people looking not only to the present, but to the past and future. Enjoyable memories of past occasions and exciting plans yet to be fulfilled are with us now.

Not long ago we were Freshmen, then Sophomores, holding hayrides on chilly, fall evenings, giving our first dances here, enjoying the initiations of the Varsity Club, and proving to the school that we are indeed a class which is full of ambitious and energetic students.

Our Junior year, which rates us as upper classmen, has proved to be our best so far. Despite the war time situation which prevented us from decorating the gym for our J-Hop in the accustomed manner, the dance was a success. Two other Junior dances this year "put us over the top." Our class President, Goodwin Sickelsteel, has led us in all of our endeavors, with the valuable assistance of James Smith, our Vice President. Betty Harlackner, has retained the memories of our activities in her Secretary's notebook, and to Maxine Falke, has been entrusted the Treasury of the Junior class.

This is but our Junior year and we are looking forward to the future when we shall be the Seniors of Lakeview High School. We do not know what the next year holds in store, but as we go forward, it is certain to be one we shall never forget.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore class is proud of their energetic entrance into all school activities. Our first red-letter day was a successful bake-sale held at P.-T. A.

A comedy-musical assembly was next on our calendar of events in which a great deal of Sophomore talent was displayed.

Another successful date was chalked up as a result of our first dance with an orchestra. The refreshments served went over big. On a whole the dance put us "in" with the high school crowd.

The versatility of the class ranges from athletics to participation in community social life. We are very proud that the second team in basketball is composed entirely of Sophomores. The Sophomores also boast Joanne Culliton, a popular member of the class, as the winner of the "Ice Queen" contest in Lakeview.

We're in High School now! Our goal has been achieved. Dances, parties, bow-ties, lipstick, cheer-leading and sports take the place of our "childhood" fancies. The intricate dance steps of those mighty upperclassmen are becoming less of a mystery. We once looked up with awe at the "amazing" lingo, the peculiar dress and habits and the good times that were the privilege of those upperclassmen. But now all of these pleasures are a part of our daily life.

We started on our financial ventures by sponsoring a Lakeview - pennant sale which proved so successful more school pennants had to be ordered. We added our bit to the monthly assembly entertainments by providing a partially "impromptu" musical skit.

The Freshman Class has been fortunate to have Mr. and Mrs. Griffin as its class advisors; Johnny Buchholz, President; Barbara Busch, Vice President; Diana Boll, Secretary; and Eleanor Frank, Treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Lloyd Bush, William Waldner, Rose Bartholomew, Jerry Hohn, Pat McKeown, Kenneth Olson, Goodwin Sickelsteel, Betty Harlacker, Betty Arnot, Joan Krainik, Ned Momany, Raymond Carless.

A student council is a small governmental organization performing all the functions of good government. One function of any democratic government is to regulate, co-ordinate, and supervise civic activities. Mr. Mitchell introduced a council organization to Lakeview in 1939 to develop student responsibility in the promotion, regulation, and co-ordination of our school activities.

Two functioning boards are set up to carry out the council's adopted rules and regulations. The Hall Monitor board, directed by Miss Nieman and Miss Bakeman, approves certain students to be on hall duty during school hours.

The disciplinary council, the second board headed by Miss Burton, Miss Kucher, and Mr. Mitchell, was organized by the student council but meets and functions as a separate organ of school government. It is the law enforcing branch of the student council.

'45 SCROLL STAFF

The seeds of suggestion for a yearbook at Lakeview finally took root this year. When the editor and staff were chosen, plans were made to begin this venture.

Posters which told the students of a contest to name the new "creation" were supplied by the art staff. Thus, the '45 Scroll forged ahead. The subscription drive started and deposits poured in. Our ace photographer "shot" everyone and everything in sight. A determined ad department helped the financial situation of this successful project.

The "behind-the-scenes" workers turned out copy like seasoned veterans. Staff members slaved during the late hours they kept, to meet deadlines. The last draft was finally turned into the printer and Lakeview's first yearbook had gone to press.

BOND DRIVE

A successful bond and stamp drive was sponsored by the senior class during the Sixth War Loan Drive and supervised by the '45 Scroll staff.

Marilyn Cannon and Beverly Mitchell acted as chairmen. They were assisted by Louie Radke, Fred DeBuscher, Frank Turpin, Ruby Young, Jean Minneman, Priscilla Sheehy, and Joyce Cannon, Sharon Cannon, Shirley Censor, and Ray Binny, sophomores.

For three days Lakeview students saved their pennies and purchased a total of $200 in stamps and over $1,000 in Series "E" War Bonds. A prize of $5 in stamps was awarded to Ronnie Pavlovich, fourth grade; and Edward Pavlovich, sixth grade, for buying the largest number of stamps.

The Eighth Graders helping us to reach our goal in the 6th War Loan Drive.

Chorus work is the specialty of the glee clubs, and both have participated in two successful Mid-Winter Follies, Spring Concerts, and many School Assemblies.

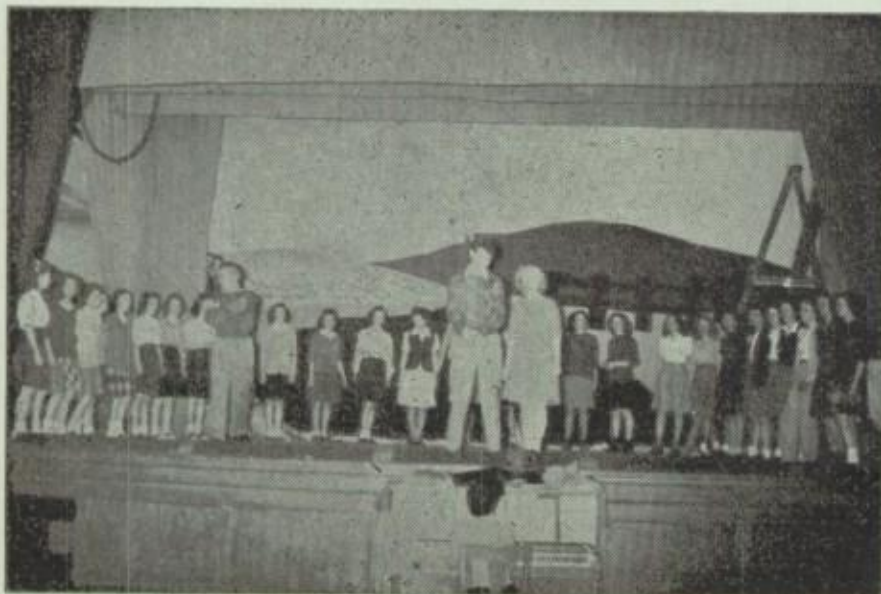

Glee Clubs

The Junior and Senior Glee Clubs have been organized for two years under the direction of Miss Ruth Fritz. Mrs. Ralph Fearnside, piano accompanist, adds much to the success and enjoyment of the work of both glee clubs.

Kay Beats The Band

After much hard work and gay "playing around," the senior class finally whipped together the scenes for the merry farce, Kay Beats The Band!

The comedy by Paul S. McCoy, was brought to life as a riot of fun, and action pierced the walls of Lakeview's gym. The mistaken identity of G. T. Ellison for maniac caused much hilarious excitement along with Kay Meredith's attempts to keep her attractive week-end guest out of the sight of her boy friend. Before the play reached its mirthful climax, the audience was treated to three acts of constant laughter and sudden surprises.

Much credit for the success of the play is due Frank Turpin and Gordon Hall for their outstanding work as stage managers.

Kay Beats The Band! was a great success in the eyes of all who attended the performances.

The Late Mr. Early

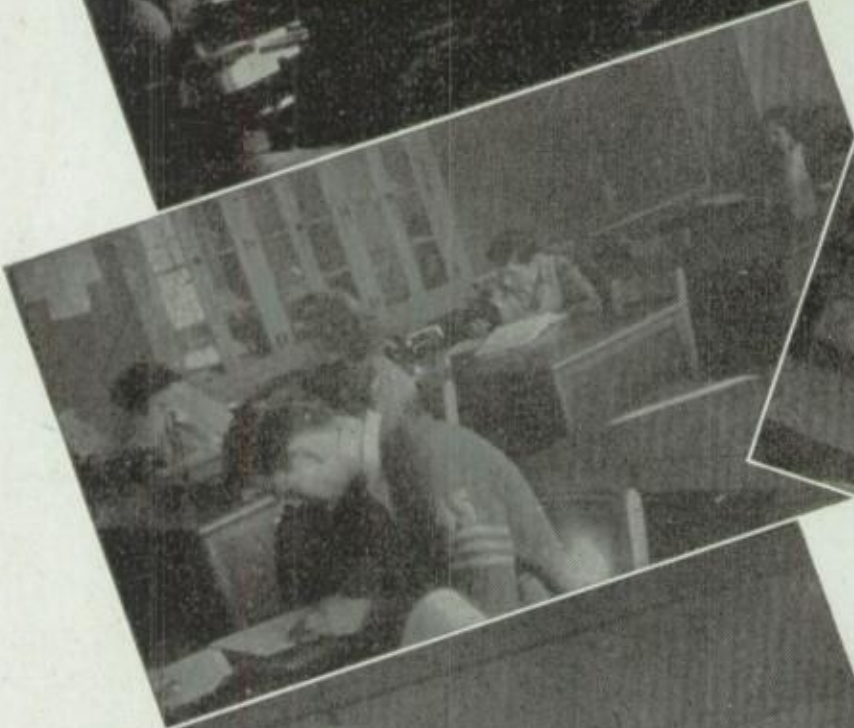

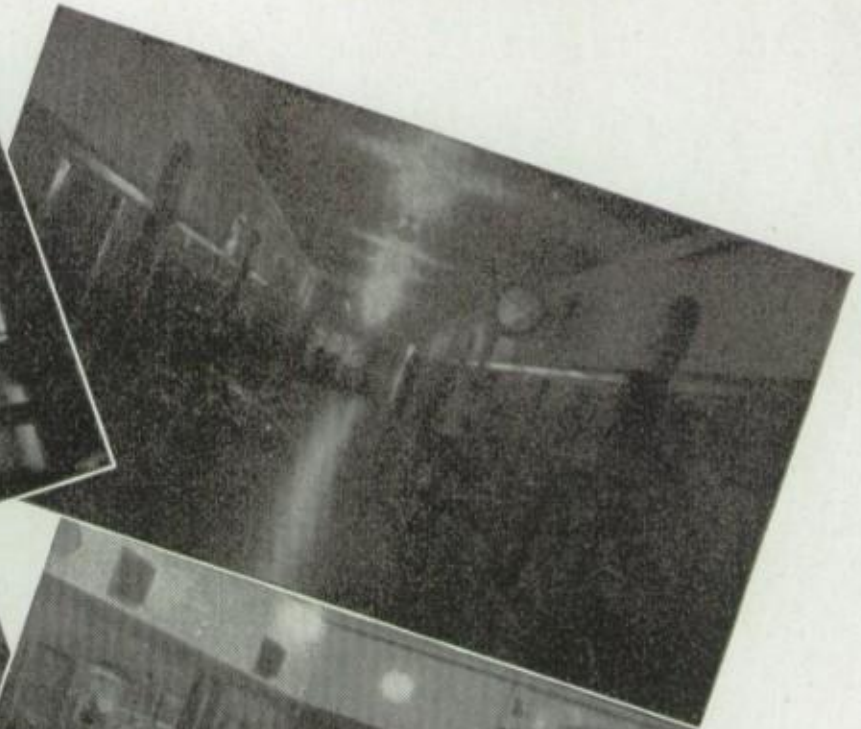

On Friday, April the 13th, psuedo-death stalked the Lakeview stage. "The Late Mr. Early" and his fiance's best friend discovered death can be wonderful, and they cast aside the cares of living for the peace (?) of the spirit world. The improbable and impossible situations provoked laughter in the audience from the first curtain until the last.

If you had been peeking through the keyhole during the Junior Class' rehearsals of their hilarious farce, you would have discovered that work, with them, is often play. Miss Burton, director, soon realized that the Juniors followed the motto "practice—plus plenty of fun—makes perfect."

The Junior Class' first venture as a group in play-acting was a success. They are now looking forward to their Senior year when they will attempt to produce another successful play.

Classroom Scenes

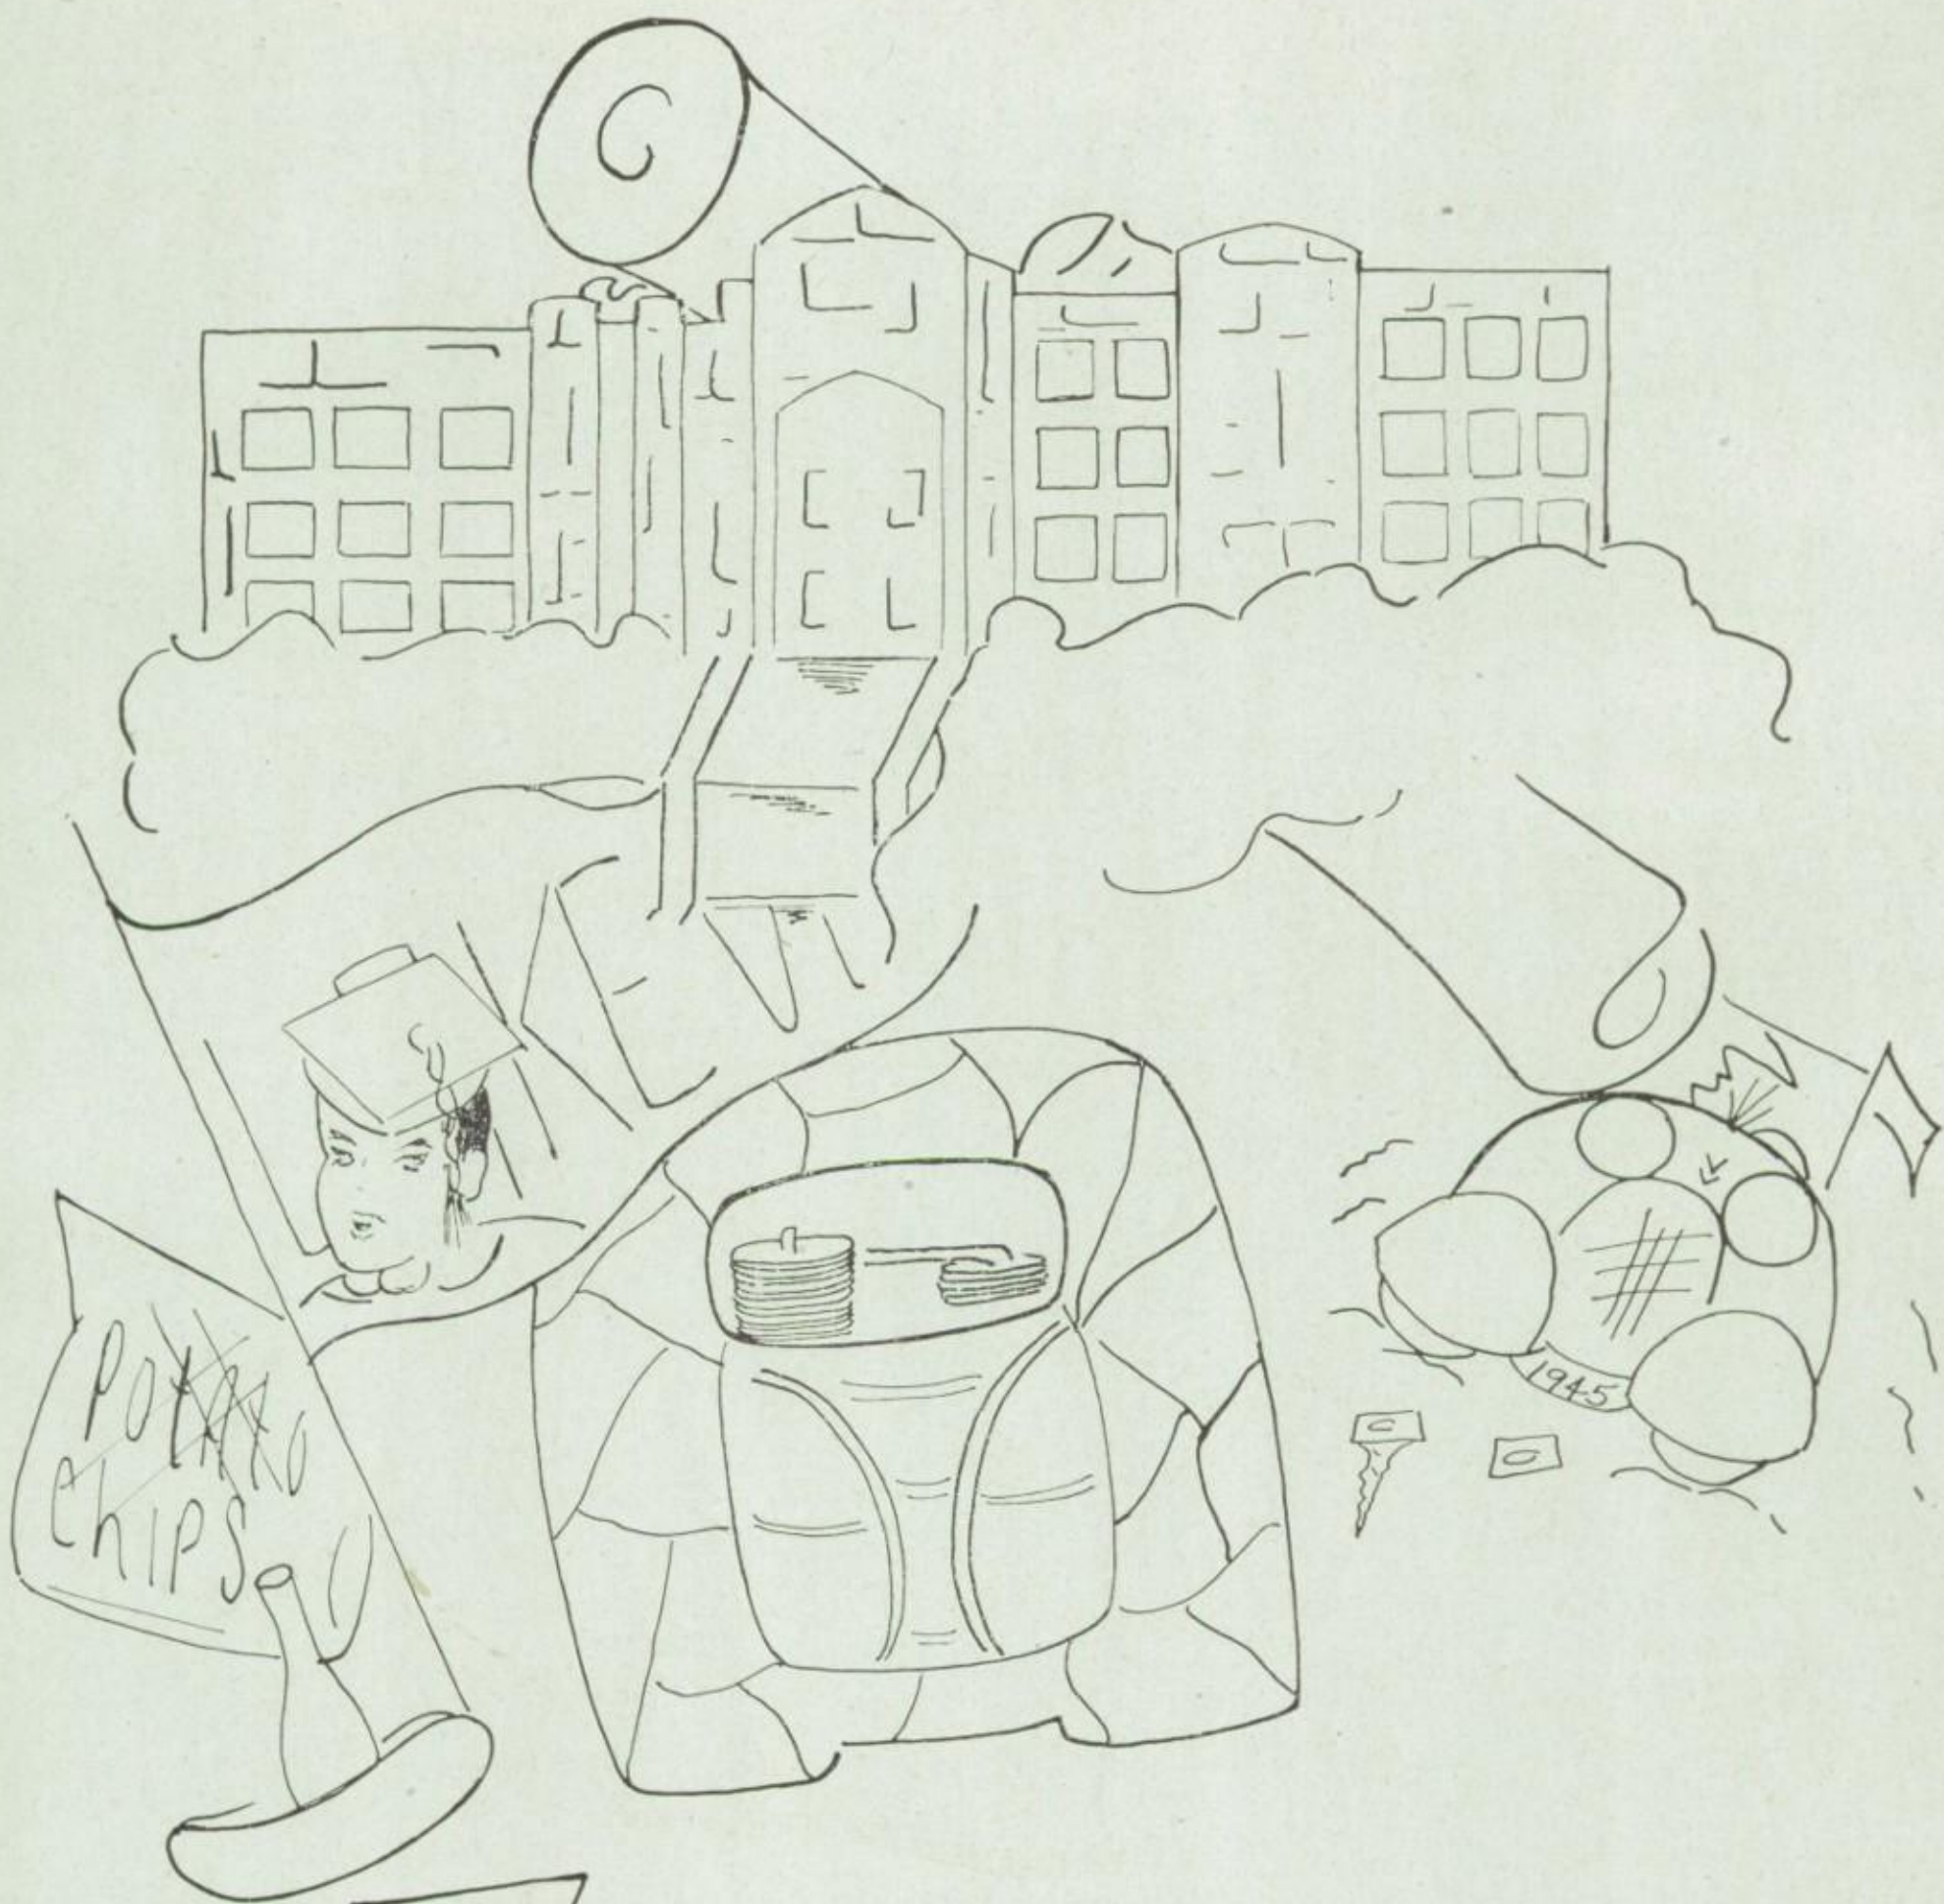

Each Junior and Senior class has had the responsibility this year of putting on a program for the entertainment of their fellow students. The entire scripts were written by each individual class to spotlight their many talents. These assemblies have been entirely of a musical and humorous nature. Each class gave their own speciality. The Seniors gave the school their version of Sinatra, the Juniors had Betty Hutton, "The Feet" were the Sophomore's gift, while the Freshmen featured their accordion player. The Junior High added their bit with the seventh graders presenting a second Harry James and the eighth grade gave us their Korn Kob Revue.

IN THIS OUR PRESENT

With malice toward none, We, the Senior Class of 1945, being in good humor and of a generous nature, do hereby declare this to be our last Will and Testament:

WE HAVE A FUTURE TOO

I went to the circus the other day and, to my surprise—I noticed the barker for the freak show seemed rather familiar—No, it couldn't be! But it was! Betty Lou Wilson! While to her left stood Ruth Culliton selling tickets to this "spectacular, colossal extravaganza." As I entered, the Shores thin man, Ed Fey, was flexing his muscle by juggling pink feathers. The "simonized" twins, Gloria and Joyce, in their idle moments were chasing "Fred Allen, the Great," the famed fire-eater about the platform. They almost had him surrounded, too by golly! I turned around, and OHHHH! There was Donald Edge, the world's foremost tatooed man. The world sure left its mark on him! I could stand no more freaks so I breezed out. Along the midway I met Margaret Mopps Vernier and all the little Verniers guzzling vernors.

Suddenly, CLANG, CLANG, CLANG! Confidently swinging the sledge was Frank "T-Shirt" Turpin, bouncing the weight up to 5,000. Following the sudden rush of the crowd, I was pushed and shoved into the Big Top. There, in her breath-taking, silver and blue costume was Rose Bartholomew ushering the patrons to their seats. "Cigarettes, popcorn, cracker-jack," this is Mildred Barton selling her wares. The lights dimmed, the spotlight flashed on, into the golden circle of light strode Eugene Kenley and blew a great crescendo on his trumpet, as into the center ring rode Helen Slenzak on her milk-wagon steed. There, swinging from the rafters were Norma Whisler and John Wooton. "Ooops, my hand slipped," cried John, as she fell to the sawdust. Ta, ta, ta, ta! There goes Kenley again with his trumpet, opening up the triple feature. In the middle ring is Bev Mitchell, the famous bubble dancer. To the right is Shorty Coomes doing a death-defying high dive into a glass of champagne. To the left is Ken Olson, guiding his trained fleas through their paces with his diamond studded Dewey pin. Next was to be that famous relation act of Jack Sheldon, Louie Radke, Mary Ann and Elaine Fresard. Mary Ann balanced the other three on her broad shoulders as they rode their bicycle across the high wire. Omm pah pah! And here, gliding into view comes Bonnie Momany and her "So Sad Circus Band" playing "Clink, Clink, Another Drink," featuring Donna Pat on the tuba with Mary Walsh assisting. The spotlight shifts, the audience falls into a hushed expectancy. A roar of laughter burst from the audience as those two side-splitting clowns, Robert Tarske and Paul Bruno rushed into the center ring just vacated by Young and Gibbs and their not so house-broken elephants. Doubtless they came to clean up!

Weary, I stumbled out to the beach adjoining the park. All the signs were pointing to the highlight of the day, a beauty contest. Among the contestants I noticed Priscilla Sheehy, Doris Sarver, Nicky Isbell and Marilyn Cannon.

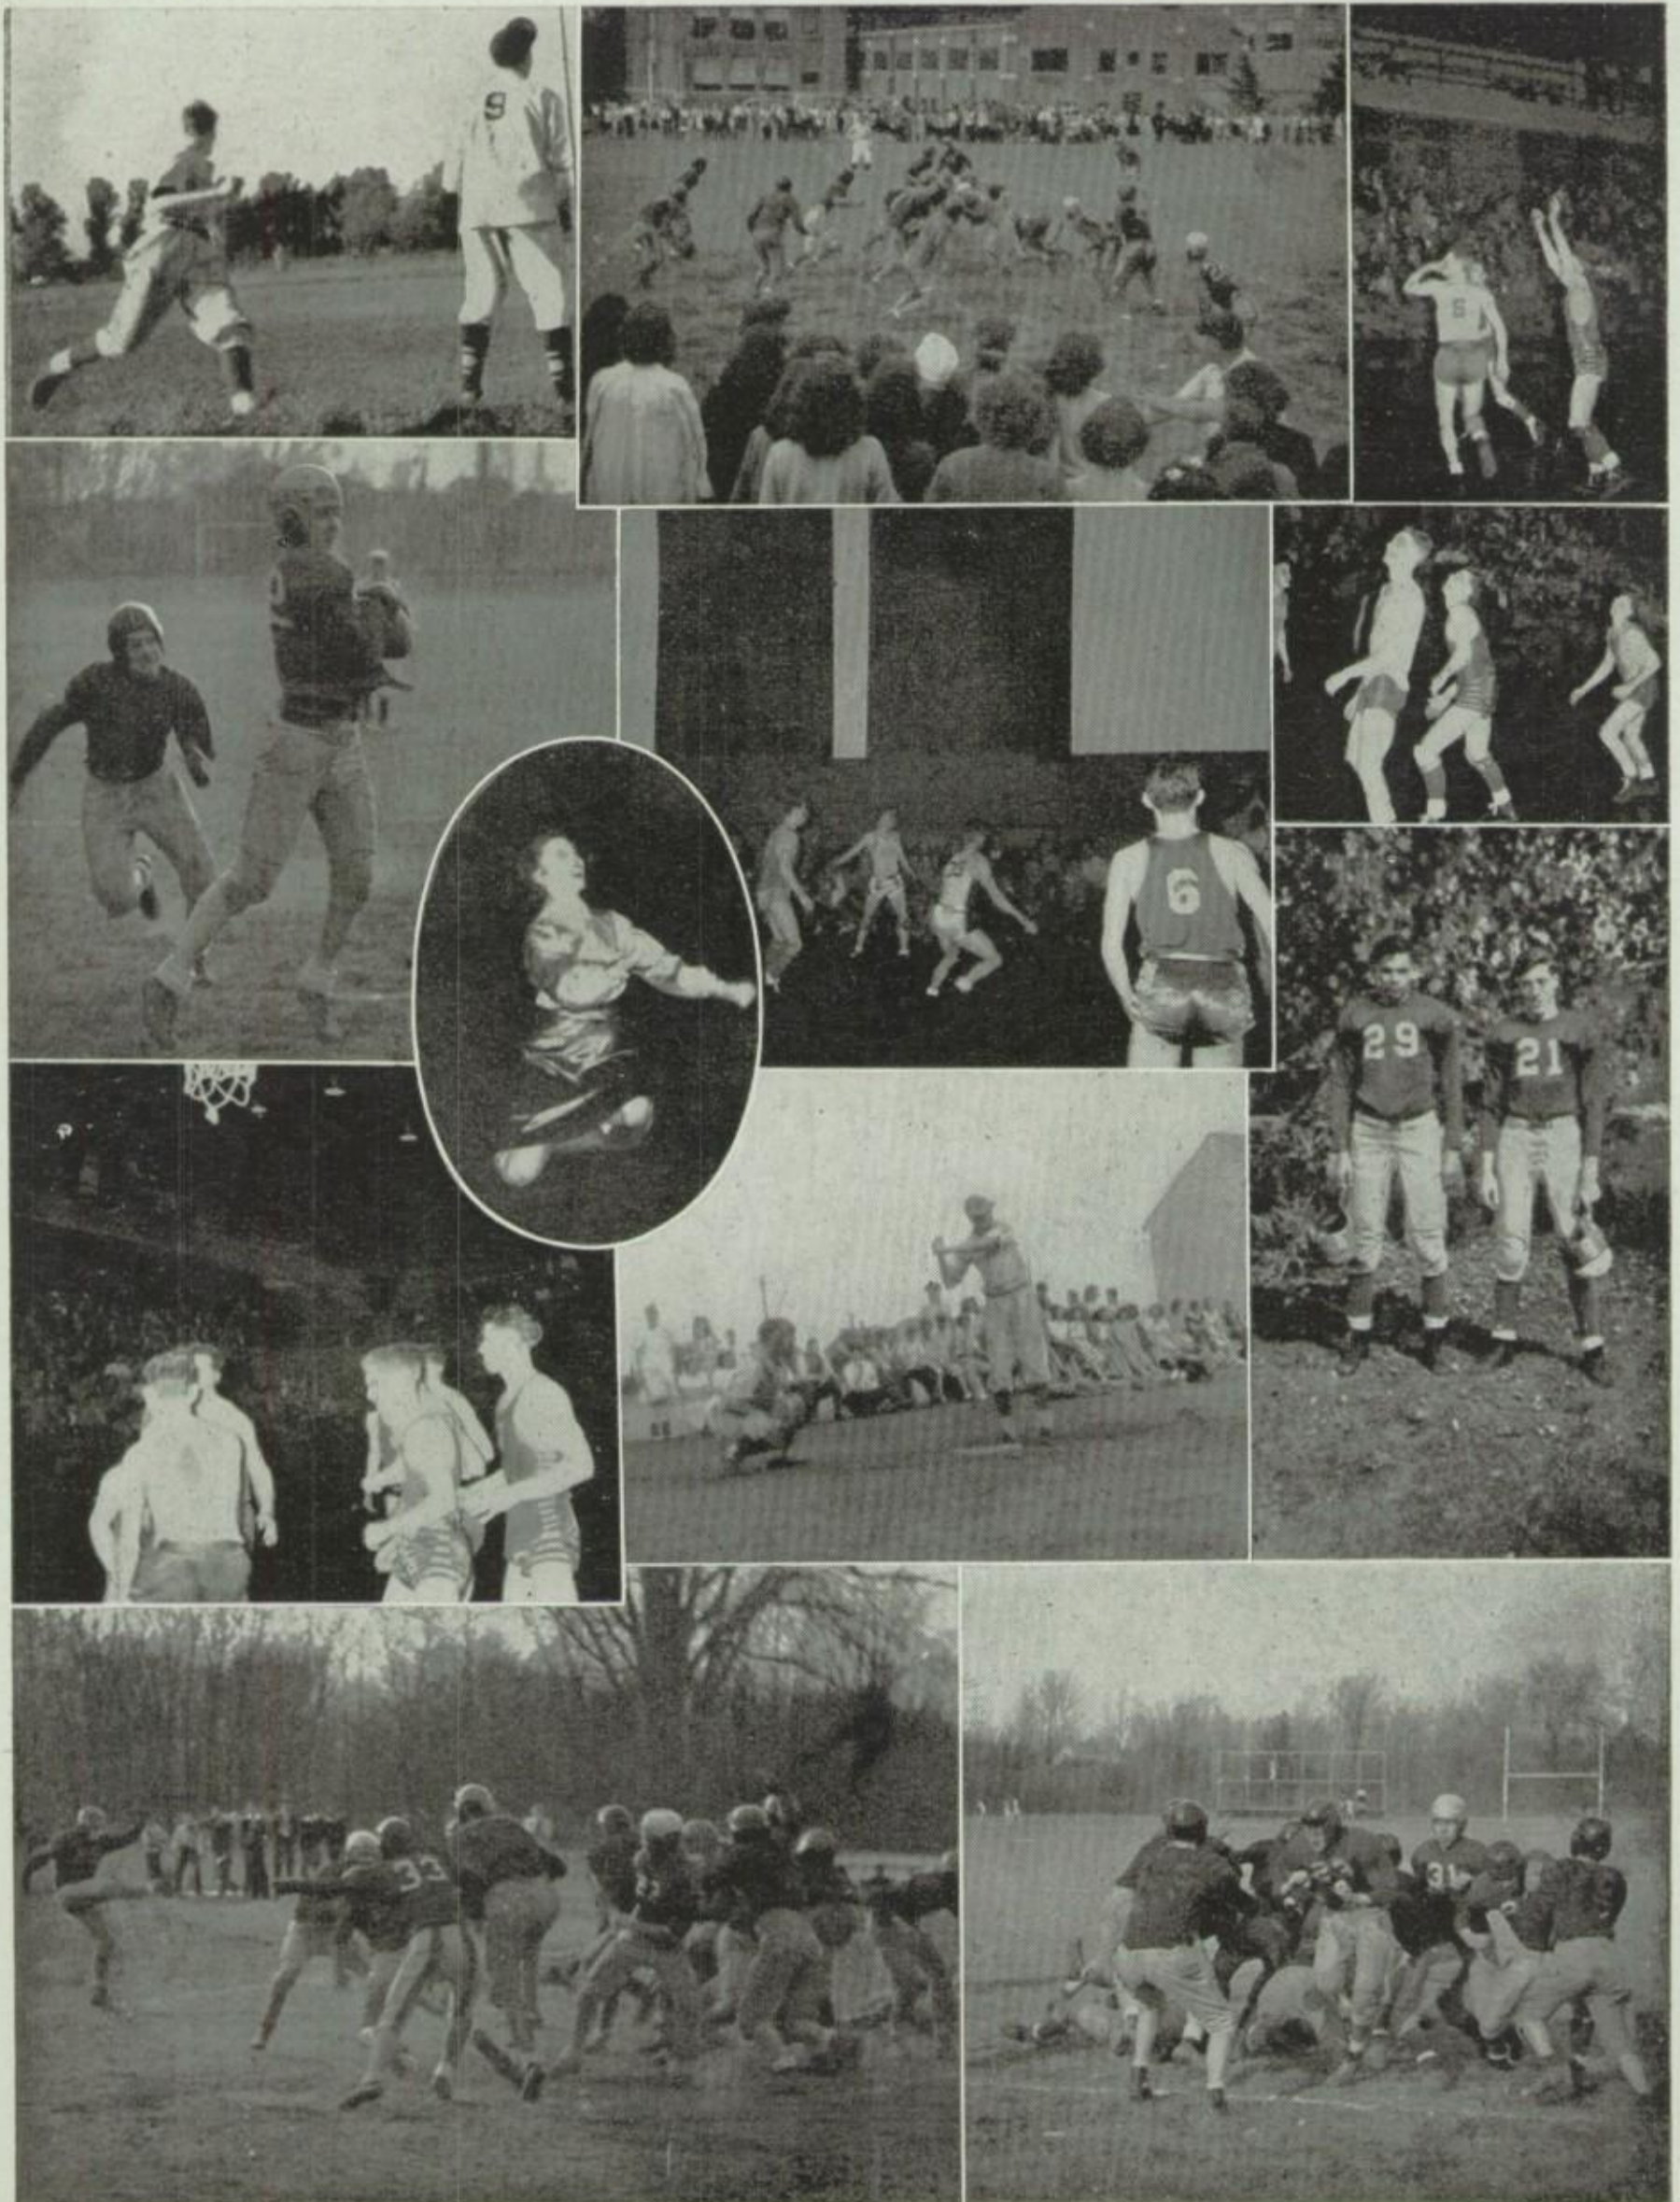

"Help, help." Further down the beach I saw Alex Arnot screaming at the top of his voice and frantically waving for someone to come and save a drowning girl. As I rushed down, the brawny life-guard, Gordon Hall dove off the pier and struck off with a powerful dogpaddle to save the fair Josephine Sheehy. The rescue party was almost swamped by the back-wash of Alan Cross's speedboat as his two giggling companions, Orena Londergan and Jean Minneman shrieked with joy.

About this time I noticed a gnawing sensation in the pit of my abdomen, so I stopped at the refreshment stand run by Helen Seifferlein, to partake in a nutritious, delicious—hot dog.

And—so we leave the circus on this joyous afternoon of July, 1960.

FOOTBALL

With the addition of "Sam" Lopresto to the coaching staff of the "44" football team, a new and different spirit was acquired. This changed spirit meant improvement in player attitude and co-ordination of individual effort.

Lighter than the "elevens" of previous seasons and lacking experience, the Huskies attack was centered on quick-opening plays. Short passes from the quarterback position netted three of Lakeview's six touchdowns. For the first time in three years Lakeview scored in every game as Bill Kellam chalked up twelve points. Each back-field man broke into the season scoring column. Though finishing in a fourth place tie in the Bi-County standings, the Huskies surprised those who had expected them to be the league "door mat" by battling all the way and were out-played only at Busch.

The graduating members, Kenley, Arnot, Hall, Wooton, Turpin, Fey, Cross, Coomes, and Allen wish the "45" squad the best of luck in attaining its goal . . . the league championship.

Because only three members of last year's Regional Champions were lost through graduation this looked like Lakeview's year to go places in basketball. However, not until Tournament time rolled around did the team hit their stride to conform with pre-season expectations. Captained by Alex Arnot and Gene Kenley the boys fought hard in every game and were rarely outclassed. Ending up in third place in the Bi-County League race, the Huskies were noted for their fine sportsmanship and team spirit. We emerged the victor in seven of twelve Varsity contests while our green Reserve squad dropped all but two of its games. The victories over Lakeshore and close, exciting encounters with D.U.S., Eastland, and South Lake high-lighted the regular season.

The Huskies maintained their tournament reputation by capturing the District Title for the third straight year. While carrying off the local laurels, the boys in blue and silver were in top form, piling up 57 points against St. Paul and downing Lakeshore for the seventh consecutive time. Coming from behind with a furious second-half drive we knocked rangy Oxford out of the Regionals, only to receive the bump ourselves from Busch by one point. Although we failed to win top honors, the spirit and enthusiasm shown by the team made this basketball season a success for both the fans and players.

In the spring of 1940 the Varsity Club was organized with Howard Cherry as the president. A marking system was set up as a basis of determining the qualifications of lettermen. A player is marked on attendance, sportsmanship, and ability. The Varsity Club votes periodically to award letters to athletes recommended to them by the coach.

Letter Club

A girl having earned a letter in cheer-leading qualifies as a member of the Letter Club. She must be eligible through average scholastic records and be of good repute. The main project of the club this year has been to raise funds for new cheer-leading uniforms. Present officers of the club are: President, Doris Sarver; Secretary - Treasurer, Beverly Mitchell. The club was organized in the fall of this school year, and it is hoped that in future years its aims and ideals will be continued.

BASEBALL

Lakeview's baseball team was organized by Mr. L. Mitchell in the Spring of 1941. With "Jiggs" Kaufman as pitcher, Lakeview tied Lakeshore in the League standings. During the playoffs our boys proved their "go-get-'em" by winning the championship, for a very successful first year.

1942 also held success for the Huskies, who by a 6 to 5 victory finally nosed out Eastland for our second consecutive championship year.

The same fighting determination and energy followed in next season. But, came this 1943 and a perverse weather man turned "agin" us, with most season games cancelled and League standings for the year discontinued.

Our enthusiastic '44 team again forged ahead under the encouragement of Mr. Mitchell. The fight and pep of the boys this season netted a great deal of fun, though not top honors.

The '45 team fortunately began its year with only three of its experienced players gone. The boys actively plunged into the season with every confidence in victory. The team members, mostly Seniors, planned on making this their last year a victorious year, and displayed plenty of fight in every league encounter.
